JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

The defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200.00, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25.00 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Pursuant to Guideline Section 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as it is found that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Noe Israel Covarrubias, is hereby committed on Counts 1 and 2 of the Three-Count Information to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 120 months. This term consists of 120 months on Count 1 and 120 months on Count 2, to be served concurrently.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a physical health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of six (6) years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office and General Order 05-02;
2. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant;
3. The defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;

USA vs. Noe Israel CovarrubiasDocket No.: SACR 14-00025-CJC

4. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. Further, the defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer; and
5. The defendant shall submit his person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, storage facility, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and his effects to search at any time, with or without warrant, by any law enforcement or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervised release or unlawful conduct by the defendant, and by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision function.

The Court strongly recommends that the defendant be housed in a low security facility in Southern California to facilitate visitation with family, friends, and loved ones.

On government's motion, all remaining counts dismissed.

Defendant advised of his right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
